Buyer will accept title to the Property subject to all exceptions to title shown on Schedule B to the Commitment (Permitted Exceptions). 2.2 Title Insurance. Buyer will receive an owner policy of title insurance (the Title Policy) issued by the Title Company. The Title Policy will be delivered as soon as possible after the sale is closed. The Title Policy will be in the form prescribed by the Texas State Board of Insurance, dated as of the Closing Date, and issued to Buyer in the amount of the Purchase Price, guaranteeing Buyer's title to be good and indefeasible subject to the Permitted Exceptions. The cost of the Title Policy will be paid by BUYER.

2.3 Conveyance. At closing, Seller will convey the Property to Buyer as-is by a special warranty deed subject to the Permitted Exceptions.

2.6 Prorations. Taxes, rents, and any expense reimbursements from tenants will be prorated through the Closing Date.

2.7 Rollback Taxes. If Seller's use or change in use of the Property before closing results in the assessment of additional taxes, penalties, or interest (collectively, the Assessments) for periods before closing, the Assessments will be the obligation of Seller. If this sale or Buyer's use of the Property after closing results in additional Assessments for periods before closing, the Assessments will be the obligation of Buyer. This paragraph survives closing.

2.8 Rent and Security Deposits. At closing, Seller will tender to Buyer all security deposits and the following advance payments received by Seller for periods after closing: prepaid expenses, advance rental payments, and other advance payments paid by tenants. If any party unreasonably fails to deliver promptly the document described in (ii) above, then that party will be liable for attorney's fees.

2.10 Auctioneer's Commission. ASSITER & ASSOCIATES, LLC, a Texas limited liability company, served as the auctioneer and real estate broker (Assiter) and has conducted the auction to sell the Property. The Earnest Money identified in Paragraph 1.2 is compensation to Assiter for provision of auctioneering services.

2.11 Notice to Buyer. According to the terms of the Texas Real Estate License Act, you, as Buyer, are advised by Assiter that Buyer should have the abstract covering the Property examined by an attorney of Buyer's selection, or be furnished with or obtain an owner policy of title insurance.

2.12 Seller's Remedies. Upon failure of Buyer to comply with this Contract, Seller may cancel this Contract and retain the Earnest Money as liquidated damages as provided below. The parties agree that such sum is fair and reasonable in light of all of the circumstances existing on the date of this Contract, including the parties' estimation of the possible range of damages to Seller in the event of a default or breach by Buyer. The parties agree that the damages to Seller in the event of Buyer's default or breach would be impossible to accurately determine and that proof of the amount of such damages would be costly and inconvenient. The liquidated damages will be Seller's sole remedy for Buyer's default or breach and Buyer will have no other or further obligation or liability under the Contract to Seller. The Earnest Money will be paid pursuant to Paragraph 1.2, and there will be no further obligation to be borne, performed, or enforced by any party.

2.13 Buyer's Remedies. If Seller fails to comply with this Contract for any reason, except Buyer's default, Buyer may either:
